SEN: Specific Learning Difficulty

EHCP REPORT #269

Section A: Views, interests, and aspirations

[Student Name] is a creative and imaginative 9-year-old girl who enjoys drawing, storytelling, and playing with building blocks. She aspires to be an illustrator when she grows up. She expresses that she finds reading "tricky" and sometimes feels frustrated when she cannot get her ideas down on paper as quickly as she thinks of them. She wants to be able to work independently in class and make more friends during unstructured playtimes.

Section B: Special educational needs

1. Specific Learning Difficulty (SpLD): [Student Name] experiences significant challenges with phonological processing, reading fluency, and spelling, consistent with dyslexia-type difficulties.
2. Speech, Language and Communication Needs (SLCN): [Student Name] has difficulties with expressive language, specifically in organizing her thoughts into coherent sentences, and struggles with auditory processing of complex verbal instructions.

Section C: Health needs

None identified.

Section D: Social care needs

None identified.

Section E: Outcomes sought

1. To improve reading accuracy and fluency to enable access to the Year 5 curriculum.
2. To develop strategies to independently organize and record written work.
3. To improve expressive language skills, allowing [Student Name] to initiate and maintain social interactions with peers during break times.

Section F: Special educational provision

1. Literacy Support: Daily small-group intervention using a structured, multi-sensory literacy program (e.g., Read Write Inc. or similar) to address phonological deficits.
2. SLCN Support: Weekly sessions with a Speech and Language Therapist (or trained TA under supervision) to work on narrative skills and vocabulary building.
3. Classroom Adaptations: Use of assistive technology (e.g., text-to-speech software), visual prompts for multi-step instructions, and access to a "word bank" or writing frame for all written tasks.
4. Staffing: Access to a teaching assistant for 1:1 support during core literacy lessons to facilitate task completion and reduce anxiety.
